

Farm with vacation housing

Finance committee of the district council, currently consulting about interventions against real estate speculation

Seven theses for the „Good Global Village“ were anonymously nailed to the church door

Unused plot of land with a strongly deteriorated residential building, rare plants and insects in the garden

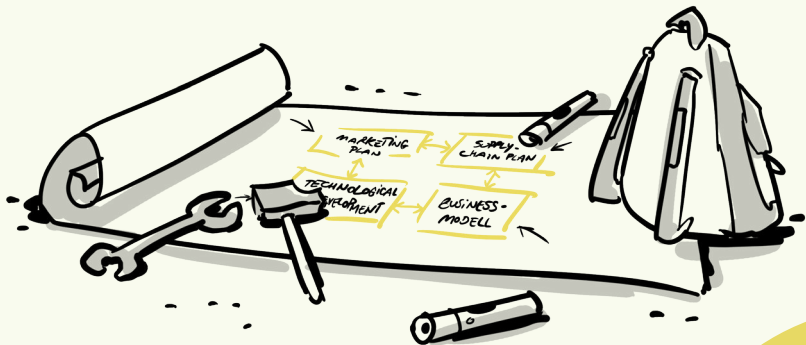

The twin town in France is coming for a visit! All guests will stay with families in the village

The volunteer fire brigade is linking with three neighboring communities to ensure emergency operations

Two handicraft businesses and the local tourist office are launching a campaign for agile business management

While traveling through, Ivan Illich once quoted: „Farms can only be saved by returnees.“

